A Tour to Four Canadian Cities Winnipeg stop is March 10, 2008

Senior aboriginal and church leaders are crossing Canada this March to promote the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) which is being set up as part of the healing process set out in the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement.

The tour seeks to bring awareness of the TRC and its historical importance to all Canadians. The Anglican, United and Presbyterian Churches, in partnership with the Assembly of First Nations, are organizing the tour. Other stops are Ottawa (March 2-3), Vancouver (March 5), and Saskatoon (March 9).

*Join us on Monday, March 10, 2008, 7:00 p.m. at The Forks in Market (Food) Court
Doors open at 6:30 p.m.*

Participating in the Remembering the Children Tour will be:

National Chief, Phil Fontaine, Assembly of First Nations

The Most Reverend Fred Hiltz, Primate, the Anglican Church of Canada

The Right Reverend Mark MacDonald, National Indigenous Bishop, the Anglican Church of Canada

The Right Reverend Dr. David Giuliano, Moderator, The United Church of Canada

The Reverend Dr. J. H. (Hans) Kouwenberg, Moderator, The Presbyterian Church in Canada

In Winnipeg they will be joined by Regional Grand Chief Ron Evans, The Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs, and The Most Rev. James Weisgerber, Archbishop of Winnipeg, among other guests.
